SUBJECT.

Proposal to take the Chalicon built Amildar Honnappa Naidu at Malebinnu under the Govt management

---

D. F. committee for the exclusive use of the travelling public and whether Board are willing to maintain the building at their own cost.

Dy 18/3/95

Mr. H. Naidu says in his letter dt 19. 8. 94 that he has made over the building to Govt for the use of Brahmans & other high caste Hindus & asks the Govt to take possession & arrange for its care & upkeep.

The building is now very much out of repair. The roof & some of the walls have to be repaired & doors, compound wall & gate have to be provided. Copy of letter is not dated. Cost of the copy of letter is not stated.

The value of the building as it now is, is stated to be Rs. 400.

Mr. H. Naidu complained to the Dy Com^r of damage done by a Forest Off^r who occupied the building without authority, & begged the Dy Com^r to arrange for the building being used by travellers. The Dy Com^r said that the building required considerable repairs, & that he cared do nothing as it was in the possession of Govt. He suggested its transfer to Govt & said that if it was transf^d, he would arrange for repairs being executed at the cost of Govt. Thereupon Mr. H. Naidu transf^d it Subject to the Govt Sec^y's approval.

To the 3rd Councillor.

I at first thought that the D^t F. should be consulted, but from the file it appears that several similar Chattrams were accepted by Govt without reference to that body.

2 Malé Hanur is on the Harihar-Shimoga Road and a good march from Harihar & Honnali.

The transfer may be accepted, I think.
